Functional Requirement

- The webpage should have a label username and followed by input box which recieves email id,password and confirm password
- Which enholds button to submit the form
- The page platform should be given with a picture
- Which has navigating bar with a teamname at the top left on it
- Implement Javascript to peform form validation on the password field to check whether the both the fields match
- When the form submit which should print true if the password matches and false if it not matches the console screen

Conditional Requirement

- Apply css Styling them and make the page appealing
- After entering valid username and password it should display console o/p within 30sec
- developers should use VS Code for development
- This refers to how well the system protects the data and protects the data and resources from unauthorized access or modification